FIRST SUNDAY OF ADVENT

1st December

“Come, Lord Jesus, Come”

Advent is a season filled with themes of waiting, preparing, and staying awake. It invites us to celebrate God's immense love in entering the world as one of us . . . It begins with the proclaiming of the words of Jeremiah, a prophet who lived and wrote from a time not all that dissimilar to ours. He speaks of a time when the promise of peace will come to pass, a promise fulfilled in the coming of Jesus, and one that extends hope to us today.

In the gospel passage of Luke, Jesus shares his final teachings before the passion narrative. Jesus speaks with apocalyptic images and language to inspire both urgency and hope for the future. These words bring a feeling of awe, highlighting that God is indeed in charge of all. Jesus warns his disciples to stay awake, be vigilant, and pray for the coming of the Son of Man, which is near. . . Jesus also warns us to be aware of dividing attention and allowing our hearts to be hardened by the cares of life. Jesus' warning may sound alarming, but Jesus also tells us to "stay awake, praying at all times" (Luke 21:36). Prayer will keep the flame of our hearts burning. Prayer will draw us back to God, who is the true centre of our lives. Through prayer and following Jesus, we can stay awake and open our hearts to the love of God. . .

In the busy season of Advent, prayer keeps the flame of our hearts alive. A simple prayer like “Come, Lord Jesus, come” captures our longing for his presence and invites him into our lives. Each time we reach out in love, care, or compassion, we encounter God at work, even in the most ordinary moments. As we wait, we are called to remain open to recognising God's presence around us, especially in the quiet, everyday aspects of life.

Advent encourages us to reflect: Where is God present in my life? Do I make Christ the centre of my life? God invites us to deepen our relationship, to choose love, to allow ourselves to be transformed, and to become people of the Spirit. But it requires our willingness and attentiveness. We must stay vigilant and ready to respond to God's love and grace. Let us stay awake and prepare our hearts for the coming of Christ. In joyful hope, may we recognise God's presence in the everyday, allowing God's love to transform us and the world.

Liturgia, Liturgy Brisbane 2024

Today's Readings: Jeremiah 33:14-16; 1 Thessalonians 3:12 - 4:2; and Luke 21:25-28, 34-36

Response to the Psalm: To You, O Lord, I lift up my soul.

Gospel Acclamation: Alleluia, alleluia! Lord, show us Your mercy and love, and grant us Your salvation. Alleluia, alleluia!

NAVIGATING THE SOUL'S STORMS

Overcoming Spiritual Discouragement

Our spiritual lives are not always full of joy, peace and light. We can feel discouraged, as though God is absent, and not be attracted to spiritual things. These experiences of spiritual desolation are a normal part of the spiritual life and can be important times for spiritual growth if handled wisely. St Ignatius Loyola offers such wisdom in his rules for the discernment of spirits. This workshop will examine some of these practical guidelines for spiritual growth.

This one-day formation event with guest presenter Fr Robin Koning SJ is hosted by the Archdiocesan Centre for Catholic Formation. Fr Robin Koning SJ is a Jesuit priest working in young adult ministry and as the vocations director for the Jesuits in Australia and NZ. He gives retreats and seminars grounded in Ignatian spirituality and is a Fellow of The Loyola Institute at Australian Catholic University and Director of the Australian Lonergan Centre. Secure your spot before Monday 2 December !

FEASTS in DECEMBER

Tues 3rd St Francis Xavier

Wed. 4th

St. Vincent de Paul Society needs your help!!! It's that time of year again when the Society needs your help in making up Christmas Hampers for the families who seek our assistance. Last year we catered for 65 families in our Parish area (including the Bay Islands) and 150 children. We need donations of all manner of non-perishable groceries and especially tinned hams, Christmas cakes and Christmas puddings as well as all the usual Christmas goodies. We also need toys and gifts for children of all ages up to 16yrs.

If you would like to make a financial contribution – we'll be very happy to shop for you. Donation envelopes are available on the back table of the Church and can be left on any of the collection plates or dropped in the St. Vincent de Paul boxes at the Church doors. If you would like a receipt for taxation purposes, please give us your details and it will be mailed to you.

Hampers will be sorted after 7AM Mass on Sunday 15th December.

Hampers will be packed from 7am Monday 16th December

Help us make a difference and give a "lift" to the many families who are under even more pressure at this time of year to provide the basics, let alone any of the Season's luxuries. We are sure you will all be blessed for your generosity.

PRAYERS

For all those who are ill, especially Miles Muscroft, Janet Dunne, Nicola Hardaker, Sebastian Ricca, Elaine Prestney, Maddy Brown, Annette Doherty, Lucas Bernal, Alfio Tomarchio, Michael Quilty, Chris Venter, Doris Williamson, Fr Jim Browne, Alan Williamson, Helen Stockwell, Marlie Meehan, Denise Fowler, Emma Heinrich, Paul Trubody, Jela Cicak, Matthew Scott and those who seek healing in their lives and for all those who care for them.

ANNIVERSARIES: We pray for those whose anniversary occurs at this time, especially Max Kelly, Anthony and Annie Dunne.

DECEASED: We commend the recently deceased, especially Lois Hodges.

ATTENTION MEN OF ST. RITA'S

- What do you treasure mostly in your hearts?

- Is it short-term earthly pleasures?

OR

- Is it preparing for eternal life?

Jesus is revealed in the Scriptures and He provides a roadmap on how to attain eternal life.

Here in St. Rita's we have a small group of men called The Men's Ministry which meets twice monthly for one hour in a relaxed setting. We read and discuss a gospel reading and explore Spirit-inspired ways to become better men.

For further information contact Father, the Parish Office, John Fogarty or Danny Gablonski
