Third Sunday in Ordinary Time 25 January 2026 Year A

Walking in the light of Christ

This Third Sunday in Ordinary Time invites us to reflect on the transforming power of God's light and the call to follow Jesus wholeheartedly. The prophet Isaiah speaks to a people who were living in darkness and despair, promising that "the people who walked in darkness have seen a great light." This promise is fulfilled in today's Gospel as Jesus begins his public ministry in Galilee, a place once overshadowed by hardship, now illuminated by his light. The Gospel of Matthew tells us that Jesus proclaims a simple but powerful message: "Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand." Repentance is not merely about turning away from sin; it is about turning towards God, choosing light over darkness, hope over fear, and love over indifference. Wherever Christ is welcomed darkness loses its grip.

The Gospel also presents the call of the first disciples. Jesus calls ordinary fishermen - Simon Peter, Andrew, James, and John - and they respond immediately, leaving behind their nets to follow him. Their response challenges us to reflect on our own discipleship. What are the "nets" that hold us back - habits, fears, comfort, or divisions - that prevent us from fully following Christ? St Paul's letter to the Corinthians reminds us that discipleship is lived in unity. He appeals to the community to be of "one mind and one heart" and warns against divisions. In a world marked by conflict and fragmentation, the Church is called to be a sign of unity, reconciliation and shared mission.

As we gather for the Eucharist, we are reminded that Christ continues to walk among us, calling us to follow him and to become bearers of his light. May this Sunday renew our commitment to live as disciples - walking in the light of Christ, building unity, and proclaiming hope through our words and actions.

May God Bless you,
Fr. Joseph Kanatt mcbs
