FOURTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME 1ST February 2026 Year A

BLESSED ARE WE WHEN WE TRUST IN GOD

The Scripture readings for the 4th Sunday of Ordinary Time (Year A) invite us to reflect on where we place our trust and what it truly means to be blessed. In a world that often measures success by power, wealth, and status, God offers a very different vision.

In the first reading, the prophet Zephaniah calls us to seek the Lord with humility and righteousness. God's promise is not directed to the proud or self-sufficient, but to the lowly - those who rely on God rather than their own strength. This message prepares our hearts for the Gospel.

In Matthew's Gospel, Jesus proclaims the Beatitudes, a radical charter for Christian living. "Blessed are the poor in spirit... blessed are the meek... blessed are the merciful." These words turn our usual ideas of happiness upside down. Jesus teaches us that true blessing is not found in having more, but in trusting God, showing compassion, working for peace, and remaining faithful even in difficulty. Saint Paul, writing to the Corinthians, reminds us that God often chooses what the world considers weak or insignificant to reveal his glory. Our faith does not rest on human achievement, but on God's grace at work within us.

As we begin a new week, the Beatitudes invite us to examine our lives: Where do we seek security? How do we respond to suffering, injustice, or need around us? May we learn to walk the humble path of Christ, trusting that in God's eyes, we are truly blessed.

May God Bless you
