SIXTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME 15TH February 2026 Year A

FOLLOW GOD'S LAW

In this Sunday's readings, we are invited to reflect on the deeper meaning of God's commandments. In the first reading from Sirach, we hear a powerful reminder: "If you choose, you can keep the commandments." God does not force us to love Him or to follow His ways. Instead, He gives us the dignity of freedom. Each day we are presented with choices of life or death, good or evil and we are responsible for the direction we take.

In the Gospel, Jesus tells us that He has not come to abolish the Law but to fulfil it. He challenges His listeners to move beyond a superficial observance of rules. It is not enough simply to avoid wrongdoing outwardly; discipleship requires an inner transformation. Anger, resentment, dishonesty, and impurity of heart can damage relationships just as deeply as outward actions. Jesus calls us to a higher standard, not one of fear, but of love. He invites us to examine our hearts. Do our words build others up or tear them down? Are we quick to forgive, or do we hold onto grudges? Is our "yes" truly yes, and our "no" truly, no?

St Paul reminds us that God's wisdom is not the wisdom of the world. True wisdom is found in Christ, who sees beyond appearances and looks into the heart. As a parish community, we are called to grow in this wisdom to become people of integrity, reconciliation, and compassion.

May this week be an opportunity for each of us to choose what leads to life. With God's grace, may we live not just by the letter of the law, but by the spirit of love that fulfils it.

May God Bless you
